

Sri Bommai and other friends have written a letter to me seeking permission to move an adjournment motion in this House. But under rule 52 of the Rules of Procedure the subject-matter is required to be restricted to a specific matter of recent occurrence. From the letter of Sri T. R. Shamanna, I find that he has sought to discuss the happenings that have taken place in different parts of the State. Here the matter is not specific. Besides, the President of the Janatha Party wanted an assurance from the Government that proper instructions should be given to the concerned officers to maintain law and orders. The Hon.ble Minister for Parliamentary Affairs, on behalf of the Chief Minister has already stated clearly that Government will not lag behind in protecting the interests of the general public and to maintain law and order. After examining all the aspects of the matter decline my consent to the moving of this adjournment motion.

With regard to the request of Sri T. R. Shamanna, I have already sent an endorsement to him,

We can take up other subjects after 10 minutes,

Now the House stands adjourned for 10 minutes,

The House rose at fifty Minutes past Ten of the Clock and re-assembled at Twenty Minutes past Eleven of the Clock
